The Ohio and Mississippl Railroad Company have had light of way of Front street to enter the city, but their contract has expired. The company is making au effort to obtain of the City Council perpetual lease, which has aroused the citizens in that vicinity. They have called a meeting to take the matter into consideration and to resist the petition of the company and to ask thatrails be removed. A warn time is anticipated. Thieves are becoung abundant, putting the police on the alert. Last night a man named Denile, keeping store on Fifth street and living on Mount Auburn, as he was going home was met by three men, knocked down and robbed of a goid watch and $500 in greenbacks. The robbes excaped.
